IMHOTEP'S GUIDE TO BLACK EVENTS

COMMUNITY

Greetings! It is with great pleasure that we send birthday greetings this month to the Godfather of Black Radio, legendary radio pioneer and co-founder of Inner City Broadcasting, Mr. Hal Jackson. Join Hal, Debbie B. and Clay Berry with the "Sunday Classics" and the New York Department of Health for a bowling party with a purpose at Harlem Lanes, and get a free flu shot while supplies last. In the spirit of our GBE Black Business Month, we celebrate Hal Jackson. He is truly "one in a million."

Also coming to the Apollo Theater: Thursday, November 16 at 8 p.m. The Second Annual American Roots Benefit Concert with special guest host Leslie Uggams. Performances by Kipori "Baby Wolf" Woods, Rory Block, Richard Hartley & Soul Resurrection Choir in a concert to support an organization that provides shelter, health, and support services to the city's neediest and most underserved population.

Capathia Jenkins and Louis Rosen, now through Sunday, November 12. Featuring new
